Guide for Official Agents: Campaign Finance Requirements

This guide was prepared for Candidates' Official Agents. Official Agents must file an Election Financing Return (EFR) within 90 days following the return to the writ to report financial activity during an election or by-election. A Candidate that has no contributions must still file an EFR to report that no contributions were received.

This guide answers these questions:

- What is the role of the Official Agent?
- Who can make a contribution to a Candidate?
 - How much can be contributed?
 - How are contributions receipted?
- When must the EFR be filed?
- Where is the EFR filed?
- Why is the EFR required?
- What information is required on the EFR?
 - What information on the EFR is available to the public?

This guide provides detailed step-by-step instructions to assist Official Agents in completing and filing the EFR. It is provided as a resource to Candidates and their Official Agents. The Elections Act must be consulted for full legal authority.

What is the role of the Official Agent?

Official Agents must be appointed by the Candidate. Candidates are required to appoint an Official Agent at the time they file their Nomination Papers with the Returning Officer for the electoral district in which they are seeking election. The Official Agent performs certain official duties, in accordance with the Elections Act.

An Official Agent is responsible for the financial activities of the Candidate's campaign, and must:

- issue receipts for contributions to contributors
- provide duplicate tax receipts for contributions to the Chief Electoral Officer
- make all payments by or on behalf of the Candidate
- keep copies of receipts, records and books of account to provide additional detail to the Chief Electoral Officer, on request, and to verify contribution amounts, if required by Canada Revenue Agency
- complete, sign and file the EFR

Who can make a contribution to a Candidate?

Contributions can be made by:

- Persons, meaning
 - an individual
 - a corporation which is incorporated in any jurisdiction
 - a partnership or other unincorporated association, organization or body that is registered under the Partnership and Business Names Act
- Unincorporated groups, meaning
 - a trade union
 - a political party
 - any other entity that is not a person

Two types of contributions may be made: monetary and “in kind”, which are defined in this guide.

There is no limit on contribution amounts. A contributor can make a contribution of any amount, as long as it is properly received.

There is no restriction in the Elections Act on who can contribute to a Candidate, as long as the contributor is identified. Anonymous contributions of any type must be turned over to the Chief Electoral Officer.

There is no limit on the total amount of contributions a Candidate can accept, as long as the contributions are properly disclosed.

Receipts for Contributions

Receipts for all monetary and in kind contributions related to the Candidate’s campaign, including contributions received before the campaign period, must be issued using official receipts provided by the Chief Electoral Officer. There are two different types of receipt forms: one for monetary contributions, which are eligible for a tax credit and one for in kind contributions, which are not eligible for a tax credit.

The Official Agent is the only person authorized to issue receipts on behalf of the Candidate.

Receipts must be requested, in writing, from the Chief Electoral Officer. A receipt cannot be issued for any part of a contribution if the contributor receives in return, or should reasonably expect to receive in return, equivalent value (in cash, negotiable instruments, goods, services or other compensation). No official receipt can be issued by or on behalf of a Candidate other than one provided by the Chief Electoral Officer, although the Official Agent may issue an interim receipt when a contribution is received.

The receipt issued by the Official Agent must show:

- the name of the Candidate
- the political affiliation of the Candidate
- the name and address of the Official Agent
- the date on which the receipt was issued
- the date on which the contribution was received (or the date of the last contribution, if more than one contribution was received from a contributor)
- the name and address of the contributor
 - for an individual, the surname and the first name (or initials); a receipt cannot be made out to Mrs. Brown, for example
 - only one contributor's name; a receipt cannot be made out to John and Jane Brown, for example
- the amount and type of the contribution
- the signature of the Official Agent

Duplicate copies of all receipts issued for campaign contributions must be filed with the EFR, along with voided receipts and any unused receipts. An affidavit is required to account for any missing receipts.

When must the EFR be filed?

The EFR must be filed with the Chief Electoral Officer within 90 days following the return to the writ after an election or by-election. The Candidate may apply to the Chief Electoral Officer for an extension of the time for filing the EFR. The application must be made before the filing deadline.

The Elections Act requires that all claims for payment must be received within 60 days of the return to the writ (67 days after polling day); the Official Agent should notify suppliers of this deadline. If the candidate receives a claim for payment after the deadline, it may be paid with the prior approval of the Chief Electoral Officer. If this occurs, an addendum to the EFR must be filed.

Where is the EFR filed?

The EFR must be filed with the Chief Electoral Officer at the office of Elections Yukon, along with duplicate copies of official receipts and statements from unincorporated groups. It can be personally delivered or mailed to the office. The EFR must contain an original signature of the Official Agent and the Candidate.

Why is the EFR required?

The EFR must be prepared following an election or by-election by the Official Agent of every Candidate. This is required by section 394 of the Elections Act. The purpose of this Return is to publicly disclose the financial activity of the Candidate related to an election or by-election.

What information is required on the EFR?

The EFR must set out the Candidate's total revenue and expenses to provide a complete picture of money/value received and used for campaign purposes. It must include all revenue and expenses relating to the campaign, including revenue received and expenses incurred before the campaign period. Revenue includes contributions and amounts received from all other sources. The EFR has separate sections to record contributions, other revenue and election expenses. It also includes schedules that allow for reporting of specific information that must be disclosed.

The complete EFR includes:

- Total revenue and expenses; campaign surplus/deficit (page one)
- Election Revenue Return (Schedule A)
- Monetary Contributions over $250 in Total (Schedule B)
- In Kind Contributions over $250 in Total (Schedule C)
- Election Expenses Return (Schedule D)

Schedules E through H may be completed on an optional basis to assist with record keeping and production of official receipts. Completing these schedules on the fillable pdf will automatically calculate the total amounts for each category of contributions and will transfer the correct information to Schedule A, where it is required.

The information on Schedules E through H will be used only by Elections Yukon to confirm the totals reported for each of these categories. Contributors' names on Schedules E through H will not be publicly disclosed.

The nomination deposit is not recorded on the EFR as a contribution or expense. With recent changes to the Elections Act, the nomination deposit is refunded to the Candidate when the EFR is received by the filing deadline. The nomination deposit is considered to be funds belonging to the Candidate (and not part of the campaign reporting).

The names and addresses of contributors who contribute more than $250 (either monetary or in kind, or a combination of both) to the Candidate's campaign are reported to the public, along with the contribution amounts. The names and addresses of the principals of unincorporated groups that contribute over this amount are public as well.

Disclosure occurs only if the amount contributed to the Candidate's campaign exceeds $250; contributions to more than one Candidate, or to the Candidate and the party, are not combined for reporting purposes. It is important to share this information with contributors; a contributors guide has been prepared for this purpose.

The Candidate may not have information to record on each schedule. In that case, the schedule should be included with a note indicating that it's not applicable.

Completing the Candidate's Election Financing Return

HEADER INFORMATION

In this section, record:

- the date the EFR is submitted to the Chief Electoral Officer
- the name and political affiliation of the Candidate
- the name of the electoral district in which the Candidate was seeking election
- the dates of the campaign period (begins on the date the writ of election is issued and ends on the 30th day after the date of the return to the writ)

ELECTION FINANCING RETURN

The first page of the EFR provides a summary of all financial activity relating to the campaign. Total election revenue and total election expenses are recorded on page one. These amounts are calculated on Schedules A and D, respectively.

From these amounts you will determine whether the Candidate is in a surplus or deficit situation following the election.

Line by line instructions for completing the EFR follow. The instructions are numbered to correspond with each line of the EFR. The EFR is available as a fillable pdf, which performs calculations automatically to eliminate the requirement for manual calculations and reduce the likelihood of errors. The schedules are designed to record revenue and expenses on an ongoing basis. When the schedules are completed, total amounts will be transferred to the corresponding summary lines for reporting purposes.

If you prefer, you may complete a paper copy. Both the fillable pdf and paper copy are available on Elections Yukon's website.

Except where noted, the information provided on the EFR will be available for review by the public at the office of the Chief Electoral Officer.

SCHEDULE A – ELECTION REVENUE RETURN

CONTRIBUTIONS

All contributions received for campaign purposes must be reported. This includes contributions received before and during the campaign period. The campaign period begins with the issue of the writ of election and ends on the 37th day after polling day, unless a recount is required.

Contributions are gifts made to a Candidate in the form of money, a good, a service or a discount off the usual price of a good or service. It does not include volunteer labour. Specific detail is required when reporting contributions.

Monetary contributions are contributions in the form of money and include cash, the monetary value of negotiable instruments (such as a cheque) and money conveyed by credit card or other similar means.

Contributions in kind are contributions of goods and services. For example, a Candidate could receive a donated good, such as a piece of used office equipment or a donated service, such as computer repairs.

The value of a contribution in kind is its fair market value when it is contributed. As an example:

- for used office equipment, the fair market value would be the cost of purchasing the used equipment
- for a service, the fair market value would be the amount that a person would usually charge for this service
- for a good or service purchased at a discount, the difference between the price that is usually paid and the discounted price is the fair market value of the contribution

Note: A Candidate's nomination deposit is not considered to be a contribution.

Line 9 Up to $50	Report the number and amount of all monetary contributions and the number and value of all in kind contributions of $50 or less . In the last column, report the total of all contributions (monetary and in kind) of all contributions of $50 or less. This amount will be calculated automatically if the fillable pdf is used.
