Introduction

On or before the last day of March in each year, registered political parties are required to file an annual revenue return with the Chief Electoral Officer. This annual report by Elections Yukon summarizes the revenue received by registered political parties for the 2020 calendar year

Electoral Finance

In a democracy, elections between competing political parties and movements have been the dominant process to elect governments. To reach out to the electorate and explain their goals and policies, and to receive input from the people on their views, candidates and political parties require funding. Access to funding, with no strings attached, is crucial to the overall vibrancy of an electoral and democratic system.¹

Rules regarding electoral finance are primarily based on the premise that money can be significant factor in electoral success. As such, political finance regulation has an important role in providing a framework designed to make the financing fair and transparent. This includes requirements respecting contributions to the various political entities involved in the territorial election.

Fairness in election finance allows candidates and parties to obtain the financial means to conduct their operations and campaigns while supporting the right of the public to participate by making contributions. Limiting contributions or expenses create level playing fields.

Transparency in election finance provides for the filing of financial reports and returns of election revenues and expenses and the public disclosure of the data.

Financial Provisions Legislation

The Yukon Elections Act provides the regulatory framework designed to make the financing of the political system transparent and fair. ‘Financial Provisions for Candidates and Registered Political Parties’ are contained in Part 6 of the Act.

Statutory Reports

Detailed in this section is an overview of the Elections Act’s statutory election financial reports required of political parties and candidates.

Annual Report

- Annual Revenue Return: This is an annual revenue return to the Chief Electoral Officer filed by registered political parties on or before the last day of March in each year. It provides the total revenues (contributions and total of 'other revenues') received by the political parties for the calendar year.

This report sets out the total amount of the political party's revenue and the number, type and total amount of all contributions.

This report is limited to revenue. There are no financial statements such as balance sheets or income statements. There is no requirement to report liabilities, detail other revenue, or surplus/deficit position, or to identify assets, loans or holdings.

Reports Following an Electoral Event

These reports are based on the 'election period' as provided for in the Elections Act, section 1. It is the period between the issue of the writ and ends on the date of the return of the writ.

Each political party and candidate are to file on or before the 90th day after the return of the writ.

- Election Revenue Return: This return is required of all candidates and political parties after an election event. It provides the total revenues (contributions and total of 'other revenues') received by candidates and the political parties).

This report sets out the total amount of the registered political party or candidate has received for campaign purposes and identifies each amount included in the total.

For political parties, it reports each amount received in the name of the candidate endorsed by the political party, or the amount received from a candidate endorsed by the political party, for expenses, including those for notices or advertising paid by the registered political party on behalf of the candidate.

For candidates, it reports each amount received from a registered political party, or by a registered political party on behalf of a candidate.

- Election Expenses Return: This return is required of all candidates and political parties after an election event. It provides the total fair market value of goods and services used during the election period.

This report sets out the fair market value of all goods and services used during the election period. Categories include electronic and print media, office and administration, personnel, election travel, and any other costs (such as candidate stipends).

- Election Financing Return: This return is required of all candidates and political parties and after an election event. It provides the information used in the election revenue and election expense reports to identify a surplus or deficit, and provides debt holder information and surplus fund disposition requirements.

This report sets out the total revenues (as reported in the election revenue return), total expenses (as reported in the election expenses return), and the amount surplus or deficit determined by subtracting total expenses from the total of all revenues received.

If a deficit is reported, the report shall include the names and addresses of all debt holders and the amount of each debt.

If the candidate was endorsed by a registered political party, the candidate’s surplus funds shall be paid to the political party and proof of payment made is provided with the election financing return. If the candidate was not endorsed by a registered political party, the surplus funds are to be paid to the Chief Electoral Officer who will pay them to the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Revenue

For reporting purposes, Revenue for a period means the total of all amounts received as contribution and all other revenue.

Revenue:

- contributions (gift of money, goods, and services)

The statutory requirements of the annual report require an itemized tally of each contribution made. Receipts are required to be issued for all contributions.

Other Revenue:

- proceeds from fundraising activities,
- donations received at meetings and rallies held for political purposes,
- membership fees,
- event registration fees,
- loans, or
- income from investments and other sources.

Other revenue is all non-contribution revenues (such as fundraising, donations, memberships, etc.) combined and reported to the Chief Electoral Officer as a single total sum as “other annual revenue.” It is interpreted as gross revenue minus contributions.

Other Revenue is not reported by category. Receipts, statements or other documentation are not required with the “other annual revenue” report submission.

Contributions

Contributions are gifts made to a candidate for campaign purposes or to a political party in the form of money, goods, services or discounts off the usual price of goods and services. It does not include volunteer labour or the payment of a candidate’s nomination deposit.

Contributions are identified by type as either monetary or in-kind. Official receipts are issued for both types of contributions, but only monetary contributions are eligible for a political tax credit from the Canada Revenue Agency.

Monetary contributions: These are contributions in the form of money and include cash, the monetary value of negotiable instruments (such as cheques) and money conveyed by credit card or other similar means.

Contribution In-Kind: These are contributions of goods and services. As examples, these include the donation of goods such as used office equipment or the donation of services such as computer repairs. The amount of a contribution in-kind is its fair market value when they are made.

Anonymous Contributions: Candidates and registered political parties are not to accept anonymous contributions. If an anonymous contribution in cash or equivalent is received, it shall be immediately remitted to the Chief Electoral Officer and paid into the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

In the case of an anonymous in-kind contribution of a good or service, it shall be immediately delivered to the Chief Electoral Officer who shall donate it to a non-profit group, or dispose of it in any other manner the Chief Electoral Officer deems appropriate. Proceeds from the disposition, if any, are paid into the Yukon Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Donations Made at a Meeting or Rally Held for Political Purposes: They are deemed not to be anonymous contributions and are to be reported in either or both of the annual revenue return and election revenue return as appropriate.

Receipts for Contributions: Issue of receipts for contributions to a candidate or political party can only be issued by officials authorized for that purpose by the leader of their respective party.

Contributors

A contributor to a candidate or registered party means a person or unincorporated group.

Person: A person means:

- an individual,
- a corporation which is incorporated in any jurisdiction, or
- a partnership or other unincorporated association, organization or body that is registered under the Partnership and Business Names Act.

Unincorporated groups: Unincorporated groups mean:

- a trade union,
- a political party, and
- any other entity that is not a person.

There are no restrictions regarding eligibility as an elector or jurisdictional location to be a contributor.

Contribution Limits

There is no limit on the amount of contributions that a contributor can make, as long as it is properly receipted and reported by the party.

There is no restriction on who can contribute to a party, as long as the contributor's information is provided.

There is no limit on the total amount of contributions a party can accept, as long as the contributions are properly disclosed.

Disclosure of Contributions

All contributions, both monetary and in-kind, must be reported. The annual revenue return must include duplicate copies of all official receipts issued.

Contributors' information is publicly disclosed if total contributions exceed $250. For each total contribution over $250, the name and address of the contributor is reported, along with the amount contributed. In-kind contributions that are subject to disclosure also include a description of the goods or services contributed.

A contribution over $250 is made when the total of monetary and in kind contributions exceeds $250 in a calendar year.

Public Disclosure: Annual revenue returns filed with the Chief Electoral Officer are public information and are available for public inspection at Elections Yukon during regular business hours.

The Elections Act prohibits the disclosure of names of contributors who contribute a total of $250 or less. Access to duplicates of receipts is not authorized.

Reports published by the Chief Electoral Officer are available on the Elections Yukon website or by contacting the office.

Contribution Reporting

Contributions are reported as either persons (individuals, corporations and partnerships) or unincorporated groups (trade union, political party, other entity not a person).

For contributions up to $50: The number of contributions is reported with total amounts.

The names and addresses of contributors are not disclosed in the report or available for public disclosure.

For contributions more than $50 and up to $250: Trade unions and political parties must provide a statement which identifies their name and address; other unincorporated groups must provide the name and address of a principal of the group.

A candidate or political party shall not accept donations of more than $50 from an unincorporated group unless a statement containing the information noted in the previous paragraph accompanies it.

The names and addresses of contributors are not disclosed in the report or available for public disclosure.

For contributions more than $250: For each contributor who contributed more than $250 in total, the total amount and types of contribution, contributors name and address, and where a contribution in kind, a description of the contribution.

Unincorporated groups (trade unions, political parties and other unincorporated groups) making a total contribution of more than $250, would include the name and address of the trade union or political party; other unincorporated groups would include the name and address of the person who is a principal of the unincorporated group.

Unincorporated groups must provide a statement, which identifies the name and address of each contributor of more than $250 towards the total contribution or indicate that there were no individual contributions of more than $250.

Contribution Tax Credits

The Political Contribution Tax Credit is available to individuals and corporations that contribute to a recognized territorial political party or candidate.

The latest update to credit amounts was on January 1, 2016. The maximum annual credit is $650, which results from a total contribution of $1,275 or more.

The credit amount is calculated as the sum of:

- 75% of the first $400 of contributions
- 50% of the next $350 of contributions
- 33.33% of the next $525 of contributions

Contents of the Annual Revenue Return

The return would include:

- The total amount of registered party's revenue
- Number, types, and total of:
 - All contributions;
 - All contributions from each contributor who contributed more than $250 in total;
 - All contributions from each contributor who contributed more than $50 but not more than $250 in total;
